REVIEWS (con't)

were spot-on – this already sick band has truly levelled up. THE SEX also had a killer new lineup, the crowd was stoked on their set, and as usual Connor was not wearing pants. DEADBOLT were all wearing pants, but 2/4 of them weren't wearing shirts, and those who came to mosh were satisfied. I left about 10 minutes into NO FUCKER (Utica, NY) when they started having bass problems and shortly thereafter blew out a guitar cab, but they were pretty loud at first and that was fun. A solid show to end/start the year on, but technical difficulties plagued the evening. Fortunately, omens aren't real, and I'm sure 2023 will pass without a hitch.

VILE CREATURE, RAGANA, JETSAM @ Turbo Haüs, January 7th

Turbo Haus is a great venue, the nearby food options are kinda weak, but the space and people are cool. The new Jetsam songs were sick, Ragana was worth the 8 year wait since last time they came, and Vile Creature was crushing, way better than at Death House. No bouncers. 2/2 show.

Reader question from the LA CHAÎNE phone hotline:

"We wanted to know what the website is to find out about which black metal bands are fashos and which are chill."

Initial reponses to posting this on our 438punk.house account pointed to a Facebook group, but then Boris came through with an actual website! <https://rateyourmusic.com/list/HelloInquisitor/black-metal-bands-and-their-politics/>

ABOUT

LA CHAÎNE is accepting submissions in english and/or french of: articles, reviews, photos, artwork, shows, classifieds (gear swap, ISO bandmates, missed connections...) etc. We are especially excited about local show or release reviews! Please keep submissions short, or get in touch beforehand if you want to submit a feature-length article or review.
